Club Rules and Code of Conduct

November 2017

STC is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all its members. The club believes that it is important that members, coaches, administrators and parents associated with the club should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. Therefore members are encouraged to be open at all times and share any concerns or complaints that they have about the club with a member of the committee.

These rules may be amended from time to time at the discretion of the committee. All changes will be publicised to members.

Serious disregard or breaches of the rules reported to the committee may result in the offending member being expelled from the club. The Club's disciplinary procedure will be applied.

General

Members agree not to bring the Club into disrepute.

Members agree upon and have signed a Code of Conduct.

Members must abide by the rules and articles of British Triathlon.

Members must respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of gender, ability, cultural background or religion.

Members must pay any fees for training or events promptly.

Training

Members are expected to behave in a manner described in the STC etiquette for the relevant discipline.

Members must wear suitable kit for training and events, as agreed with their coach. This includes approved cycle helmets, have road worthy bikes and wear reflectors when necessary. In open water swimming sessions, brightly coloured hats must be worn.

Members should keep to agreed timing for training and competitions or inform their coach or team manager if they are going to be late

Competition

Members must obey all rules relating to the event they are competing in and compete in a sportsman-like manner.

I have read and understood the above rules and code of conduct and hereby consent to abide by it.
